Suffice to say, Crazy in Love... was exactly what I needed: Nina and Noah were well written characters with interesting back stories and their interactions were witty and sparky. Yes, it follows the tried and tested romance formula - man and woman meet, a bit of awkwardness, attraction, pitfalls of getting together, etc. but it was fun!

Georgie's close-knit family, is picture-perfect. But lately Nick has been consumed with his job on Wall Street, and Georgie finds herself plagued with suspicions too awful to contemplate. To distract herself, she plunges into her work with the Swift Observatory, examining the stories of people whose lives have been changed by unexpected tragedy. But it's when a handsome stranger arrives on her doorstep that Georgie learns firsthand that when your dreams are in danger of collapsing, it's time to create new ones...
