Just before summer begins, 13-year-old Ali finds an odd photograph in the attic. She knows the two children in it are her mother, Claire, and her aunt Dulcie. But who ' s the third person, the one who ' s been torn out of the picture? Ali figures she ' ll find out while she ' s vacationing in Maine with Dulcie and her four-year-old daughter, Emma, in the house where Ali ' s mother ' s family used to spend summers. All hopes for relaxation are quashed shortly after their arrival, though, when the girls meet Sissy, a kid who ' s mean and spiteful and a bad influence on Emma. Strangest of all, Sissy keeps talking about a girl named Teresa who drowned under mysterious circumstances back when Claire and Dulcie were kids, and whose body was never found. At first Ali thinks Sissy ' s just trying to scare her with a ghost story, but soon she discovers the real reason why Sissy is so angry. . . . Mary Downing Hahn is at her chilling best in this new supernatural tale that ' s certain to send shivers down her readers ' spines.

This anthology of paranormal short stories with diverse backgrounds in supernatural settings and unusual endings, guarantees to send chills down your spine. The reader will experience how imaginations of the protagonists turn into a ghostly reality, and how a dead mother manipulates the son of her deceased lover and her living daughter. More strange stories of love, which sprouts through bizarre ventriloquism and a man's yearning between a beautiful ghost and a living girl, keeps the eeriness alive throughout the book. Other curious stories of revenge will take the reader through the hit and run accidents that teach weird lessons, baffling broadcasts of murders, and where a dead man's face superimposes on his tormentor. Each story is a unique experience.

« Ces livres m'ont époustouflée ! La meilleure histoire d'amour paranormale que j'ai jamais lue ! » Anna Zaires, auteure de best-sellers du New York Times J'ai la pire des colocataires de fac. Cécile me vole ma nourriture, amène des hommes à toute heure et fait la fête au lieu d'étudier. Mais ces excentricités ne sont rien en comparaison de ce qu'elle a fait ensuite. Elle m'a droguée, et je me suis réveillée emprisonnée dans un univers parallèle rempli de créatures terrifiantes. Maintenant, la créature la plus grande et la plus effrayante de toutes, un roi des Faes, croit que je suis son amie. Il m'a libérée du donjon, mais il me garde près de lui. Si proche, en fait, que je commence à aimer son regard glacial et son corps ciselé par la glace. Mais les secrets et les méchants rôdent dans ce nouveau monde, et je ne sais pas si je survivrai assez longtemps pour arriver à rentrer chez moi. Note de l'auteur : La Prisonnière des Faes est le premier livre d'une série qui mettra le feu à votre imagination – et ailleurs...

Chosen. Cursed. Enslaved. Fae just wants to live day to day. She doesn't want to think about a future filled with another two thousand years of servitude. She doesn't want to think about her past, or the way she failed the goddess she swore to serve forever. And she really doesn't want to think about the men and women that suffer around her every day while she can't protect them? no matter how hard she tries. She's definitely not ready when her entire world is turned upside down and the one person she would never choose to spend a minute with shows up. After millennia of suffering, is it even possible to trust someone? To let herself believe that good still exists? Damned. Cursed. Corrupted. Kiernan doesn't know what he wants. After centuries of bloodshed, and war, and killing? he's waking up, and if the things he dreams in his sleep were only nightmares that would be one thing, but they're all real. The only light in his darkness is a girl inside a glass, and he can't stop watching her. Her bravery fascinates him, inspires him. Her suffering is what he deserves. Yet some part of him craves more, craves something good. But is there anything that can be done when gods have used you as pawns in their own war? Can good things come out of evil?

So when he's offered the chance to be the wireless operator on an Arctic expedition, he jumps at it. Spirits are high as the ship leaves Norway: five men and eight huskies, crossing the Barents Sea by the light of the midnight sun. At last they reach the remote, uninhabited bay where they will camp for the next year. Gruhuken. But the Arctic summer is brief. As night returns to claim the land, Jack feels a creeping unease. One by one, his companions are forced to leave. He faces a stark choice. Stay or go. Soon he will see the last of the sun, as the polar night engulfs the camp in months of darkness. "My name is Jemma Blackburn, and I have a secret. I know vampires are real. I watched one murder my father eight months ago, and even though they tried to convince me it didn ' t happen -- that I'd lost touch with reality due to the trauma, I know what I saw was real. Hollow Hills is now the place I call home. It was supposed to be my chance at a normal life. My chance to bury my secret and start over. But everyone around me is keeping their own secrets, whispering lies into my ears like promises, and one of them is about to turn my entire world upside down. I thought I had it all figured out. I thought I had the answers. I thought I knew who I was. The truth is, I didn ' t even know the half of it. There's a reason these vampires are still after me. There's a reason they will always hunt me. Because I'm not human. I'm the devil they fear and the angel they crave. Only problem is, I don't know it yet..." --Page [4] of cover.
