Monte Johnson
examines one of the most controversial
aspects of Aristotle's
natural philosophy:
his teleology. Is

materialism? Is it
focused on the good

teleology restricted to

anthropomorphism.
Although these issues
have been debated

wider philosophical
and scientific
community as well,
there has been no

innovator of
teleological

Teleological notions
were widespread
among his predecessors, but Aristotle rejected their conception of extrinsic causes such as mind
or god as the primary causes for natural
things. Aristotle's radical alternative was

'teleological' notions, including proofs for the existence of a providential or designer god, vitalism and animism, opposition to mechanism and non-teleological causation, and anthropocentrism.
