This book argues that contemporary society in Western democracies is generally

misunderstood to be a pyramidal hierarchy dominated either by government or the economy. Neither

view is correct. We live in a fundamentally

File Type PDF

Hyundai

pluralistic society

divided into numerous

‘ modular ’ social systems each
performing different functions; these include politics,
public
administration, the armed forces, law,
economics, religion,
education, health
and the mass media.

Hyundai

Because each is specialized, none of these systems are dominant and there is no overall hierarchy of power.

Modernizing societies are therefore structured more like a mosaic than a pyramid.

Modernization is the tendency for growth in the adaptive

Hyundai

Complexity and efficiency of the social systems.

Growth in complexity
is shaped by selection processes which maintain the functionality of social systems. The best examples are the
market economy,
science and
democratic politics.

The process of

Hyundai

Modernization is both inevitable and,

on the whole,

desirable: this constitutes the modernization imperative.

Therefore, the proper question should not be whether society
should modernize,
but how.
