Lamb to the Slaughter Beware of Dog - Man From the South Values/Beliefs: The main value that I get out of this story from Dahl is faithfulness. The text is humorous, in a dark way, but it clearly shows Dahl's resentment towards cheaters.

Lamb to the Slaughter - Multimedia Identity Project - Weebly
The symbolism Dahl uses to etch the theme of the story begins most obviously with the title of the short story itself, " Lamb to the Slaughter " and the instrument used by Mary Maloney to kill her husband. Lambs have been used for thousands of years as a symbol of innocence, meekness, and purity. The phrase " like a lamb to a slaughter " represents something innocent happily making its way towards a negative situation in which it will most likely get hurt.
