Sepultura FULL "Schizophrenia" album played on guitar... Schizophrenia is the second studio album by Brazilian thrash metal band Sepultura, released on October 30, 1987 by Cogumelo Records. It is the first album for the band with Andreas Kissser. The album's sound leans more towards the death/thrash metal genre than the previous album Morbid Visions, which is stylistically closer to black metal. All songs were recorded during August 1987, except for the bonus track "Troops of Doom" which was recorded during August 26–27, 1990. In America the band ...
Schizophrenia (Sepultura album) - Wikipedia Sepultura were still very much in their early, grimy, and bestial form when Schizophrenia rolled out in 1987. They were still with Cogumelo at this point, but their sound had managed to congeal into something more solid, vicious, and dark.
